What Are You Waiting For?

Here at The Island Game, we take great pride in putting together the best possible team to ensure excellent service for our customers.

We are always looking for dedicated, dynamic, service-oriented team members with a willingness to learn and grow.

The Island Game strongly believes in the training and development of its staff and have put in place many different internal and external programs that help our staff to develop both personally and professionally.

We seek to become the preferred gaming entertainment option in The Bahamas; this can only be achieved by having a strong core team ready to push the company to the next level.

A job with The Island Game means you get the chance to be a part of a new and exciting industry with tremendous growth potential.
